Dear [REDACTED],

We are aware that the 2022 evidence review of e-cigarettes and novel nicotine delivery systems will be published later this year. With this in mind, please find attached a letter and accompanying submission to the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care concerning the latest scientific information on Heated Tobacco Products. A hard copy will also be sent in the post to the Department of Health and Social Care.

If you or the Department require any further information then please do let me know.

Kind regards
