

From: UKVIA [<mailto:noreply@ukvia.co.uk>]
Sent: 13 December 2017 18:01
To: Martin Dockrell
Subject: Vaping UK: Issue 6

No Images? Click here

Vaping UK

Issue 6.
13 December 2017

Welcome to the sixth issue of Vaping UK, an e-bulletin published by the UK Vaping Industry Association bringing the latest news and views in the sector.

Parliament challenged to be vape-friendly

The APPG for E-Cigarettes has met to challenge the idea that vaping should be banned in some public areas or workplaces, and in particular the restrictive rules around vaping in Parliament itself...

Read more

UKVIA Forum 2018 - Going for Growth

The UKVIA has announced that it will be holding its inaugural Vaping Industry Forum on 23 April 2018 at The Kings Fund...

Read more

Vaping is a public health triumph, says former Health Minister

Norman Lamb, Liberal Democrat MP and the former Minister of State for Care and Support claimed that vaping was “a public health triumph” at the launch State of the Vaping Nation report at the Houses of parliament...

Read more

UKVIA at the NGN Conference

UKVIA member Christian Mulcahy, Business Development Director at MultiVape delivered the closing presentation at the recent Next Generation Nicotine Delivery Conference, focusing on the opportunities that Brexit presents to the vaping market...

Read more

E-cigarettes: Balancing risks and opportunities

British Medical Association moves towards vape-friendly policy

The British Medical Association (BMA) has recently published an updated position paper on vaping products, which acknowledges the role of vaping in achieving the UK's smoke free targets and reinforces the growing public health consensus that vaping is substantially safer than smoking...

Read more

mental health smoking partnership

New study concludes that vapers suffer no long term health effects

New research reveals that vaping does not present any long term health risks to vapers. The study looked into the health impact of e-cigarettes over a period of 3.5 years, by comparing daily vapers with a control group of non-vapers or smokers. The results demonstrated no evidence of health differences between the control and test subjects...

Read more

UKVIA

UK Vaping Industry Association Ltd No.10367231.
34 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3HL.

Forward