

Vision and ambition

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements about the council's vision and ambition?

	Strongly agree	Tend to agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Tend to disagree	Strongly disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have a clear vision for improving health and wellbeing and tackling health inequalities that places emphasis on wider determinants, prevention and community asset building.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our vision is clearly articulated and owned by people in key leadership roles right across our organisations.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The priorities in the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy are well integrated into the work of our organisations.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Prevention is a core part of our key plans.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have a culture that promotes health and wellbeing.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have a systematic and comprehensive approach to building Health in All Policies.

How well do we work with others to improve health?

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements in relation to how the council works with others to improve health?

	Strongly agree	Tend to agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Tend to disagree	Strongly disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We work effectively with local communities to understand the needs and assets in those communities and work with them to find solutions.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We engage well with communities with differing needs (e.g. different types of neighbourhood, young people, those with learning disabilities, ethnic groups, older people, families etc.)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are making the most of our legal and regulatory powers to improve and protect health.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We exert influence regionally and nationally on issues which impact on the health of our residents.

Are we making a sustainable impact on health outcomes?

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements in relation to the council's work on improving health and tackling inequalities?

	Strongly agree	Tend to agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Tend to disagree	Strongly disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have effective systems to track changes in health and health inequalities outcomes.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our managers know what is going well and what needs to be improved.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have plans in place that will impact in the short, medium and long term.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We have good systems in place to challenge the progress that is being made.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are engaged in an effective programme of sector-led improvement to help improve health outcomes.

Are we using our resources to best effect to improve health?

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements in relation to use of resources?

	Strongly agree	Tend to agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Tend to disagree	Strongly disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We work well with each other and partners to make the best use of the local £.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Health considerations are always taken into account when decisions on resources are made.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evidence of effectiveness, value for money and return on investment is used routinely in decision making.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is the right balance between investment in acute care needs and upstream prevention measures.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Programmes and services delivered on the ground reflect strategic priorities.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Frontline staff and commissioned services across the full range of our functions are playing a role in improving and protecting health.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Communication of key public health messages is effective and there are examples of where communication is having a positive impact.

Health in All Policies

To what extent do our staff have the following qualities to enable them to contribute effectively to developing an embedded health in all policies approach?

	To a great extent	To a moderate extent	To a small extent	Not at all	Don't know
• The commitment
• The skills
• The capacity					