

How to access the e-LfH PHE e-learning modules

1. To access the Health Education England e-Learning portal (e-LfH) please visit <https://portal.e-lfh.org.uk/>
2. Information about the PHE Local Knowledge and Intelligence Service e-Learning, including how to register is available here: <https://www.e-lfh.org.uk/programmes/public-health-intelligence/>
3. In order to access our e-Learning you will need to register twice – once with Open Athens using a .nhs or .gov email address, and once using the same details with e-LfH.
4. To access OpenAthens registration please visit: <https://www.nice.org.uk/about/what-we-do/evidence-services/journals-and-databases/openathens/openathens-eligibility>
5. to register for e-LfH please visit: <https://portal.e-lfh.org.uk/Register>
6. Log-in here with your OpenAthens details: <https://portal.e-lfh.org.uk/OpenAthensDiscovery> - select NHS England
7. You will be asked to link to your e-LfH account so please take note of your username and password.
8. On the account dashboard (<https://portal.e-lfh.org.uk/Dashboard>) select My Account, select Enrolment and scroll to Public Health – you should see a selection of modules (see image below) – please select “Public Health Intelligence HEI” – if you only see two topics then please get in touch with the sender of this email as your accounts have not been linked properly, or your details are ineligible.
