

AGENDA

16 June 2017
at Department for Transport

09:45	Assemble Coffee, Conversation, Registration
10:00	Welcome and Introduction Opening Comments about BCPF, BCPF3, venue, live survey.	Wendy Eley and Merv Wyeth
10:20	The DfT Experience Our hosts for today: what do they do here and what do business cases mean to DfT?	DfT Speaker (Wendy Eley),
11:00	New Zealand Developing Business Cases in New Zealand Business Case Clinics	Lawrie Kirk Lawrie is the global Consulting Lead for the APMG Accredited Consulting Organisation and Registered Consultant scheme. In addition he is the Business Development Manager for APMG training products for Australia and New Zealand. He is experienced in training and consulting in programme and project management including the delivery of organisation maturity assessments. Lawrie has a focus on helping people understand how to be more strategic and efficient in managing change. Since 2006 he has been a member of The Australian National Centre for the Public Awareness of Science (CPAS) as an industry specialist and Visiting Fellow in strategic communication.
11:30	Never Alone in a Crowd Crowdsourced Solutions to Crowdsourced Scenarios	Simon / Stefan Exploring the forum format and seeing what we can achieve working together.
12:30	Lunch Lunch with Business Case people	With thanks to APMG for their kind support

AGENDA

16 June 2017

at Department for Transport

13:15	Welcome back A brief intro to the afternoon...	Stefan Sanchez
13:20	A Question of Value Bill will explore how the programme's business case can demonstrate value in change beyond a return on investment or saving money.	Bill Harkins Bill Harkins is the Managing Director of BHa. Bill's experience is a blend of blend of strategic leadership and business expertise. Bill was Assistant Chief Constable in the Tayside Police Force until 2011. His experience in emergency services led him to develop Golden Hour Thinking - a technique that helps small to medium sized enterprises leverage the clear focus on strategy, priorities, resources and stakeholders. He is a First Class Honours Graduate in Business Studies and prides himself on strong critical incident, strategic and programme management abilities and providing logical and pragmatic solutions to business challenges.
14:00	Business Case: Managing the Risk of Change This presentation explores how the business case can benefit from a good risk assessment.	Simon White Simon builds on over 20 years' experience of helping organisations to understand and manage risk, and his customers (especially the non-mathematicians within their teams) appreciate the transparency of his approach and use it to increase their chance of success.
14:40	Break
14:50	Sharing Knowledge and BCPF The importance of sharing knowledge to forums like this and the formal launch of our KHub site All in the context of some exciting developments for the whole change community being led by the IPA.	Adrian Davis Adrian is the GovPDC Delivery Manager at Infrastructure and Projects Authority. Adrian joined the Project Delivery Profession in 2001, specialising in Planning and Scheduling. He is a registered Project Planning and Controls Practitioner. His is leading the building and developing of the online community for the UK Government Project Delivery Profession that is open to all sectors.
15:20	In Closing ... Some discussions raised by the day, a forward look and a return to the live survey.	Simon / Kevin
15:30	Close

About the BCPF Team

Merv Wyeth [founder]

Merv is UK Service Delivery Partner to Amplify Benefits-led Portfolio Management tool and a Benefits management, Business Case and Open Strategies specialist and is the Director of Chanctonbury Associates and Amplify Now. His varied career with Sussex Police saw a mix of operational, change management and training roles. He specialised in ICT projects. He subsequently performed roles of customer success manager, event curation, marketing and digital engagement. He is a fellow of the APM, and Secretary to APM Benefits Management Specific Interest Group and a part of the PMI virtual events team. He enjoys professional networking and is passionate about learning and supporting the personal development of others.

Stefan Sanchez [founder]

Stefan Sanchez is Director of Value People, specialising in providing business case support and training to the public and private sectors. He has had a diverse and varied career in the public sector including regulatory work, parliamentary experience and senior management positions in the Welsh Government. Stefan led the development of the Better Business Case standard which is now formally accredited and commercially available and is a founding member of the Better Business Case Standards Board which regulates the accredited standard. In this capacity he has provided the New Zealand Treasury and States of Guernsey with advice on the Better Business Case approach. He is an Approved Better Business Case Trainer. Stefan has led the development of several high profile schemes across the Welsh public sector and overseen many more 'scrutiny reviews' for Accounting Officers seeking assurance their investments will deliver value for money. Stefan established and still leads the Better Business Case network in Wales.

Simon Kinrade [founder]

Head of Transformation Services, Columbus/CDIO Transformation, HM Revenue and Customs
Simon has a background in Finance and Audit and has served on HMRC's Investment Committee. Columbus is the largest commercially enabled IT transformation in Government which sees HMRC move from a single IT Service contract worth £billions to a new multi-sourced model combining shorter, smaller contracts with in-house services. Simon shares a passion for improving the quality, understanding and use of business cases in the PPM community.

Kevin Briggs

Kevin is the Head of Business Assurance at the Health and Social Care Information Centre in Leeds. He has a history of developing and assuring business cases across the NHS and has also supported Cabinet Office's research into an Investment Appraisal Centre of Excellence.

Our kind host today: Wendy Eley

Deputy Director, Head of PMO, High Speed Rail, Department for Transport
Wendy is an experienced Senior Civil Servant with a background in complex and contentious projects and highly skilled at managing programmes. She has a reputation for bringing together disparate teams in difficult times, building cross-Whitehall and industry networks and using innovation to facilitate success. Wendy is a member of the Civil Service Future Leaders Scheme.